NUMBER 44.

MUST NOT ORGANIZE.

Employees of the Carnegie Steel Works at Homestead.

NEARLY ONE HUNDRED "FIRED."

For Attending a Meeting Looking to the Formation of a Union Among Themselves. Warnings Were Unheeded—More Are Likely to Go and the Question Is Who Will Be the Next.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 15.—There was great excitement in the Homestead steel plant yesterday. Superintendent C. M. Schwab called about 20 of the most prominent workmen and asked why they attended the meeting Sunday to discuss organization, and then discharged them. The company had detectives at the meeting. The excitement is subdued as there is fear as to who will be the next to walk the plank.

More May Go Today.

Nearly 100 men have already been discharged, and it is said more heads will come off today. The men employed at the works had been warned by the company that any attempt at organization on their part would result in a wholesale discharge, and so this move was not altogether unexpected, although it was not thought it would come so speedily, after their first effect. The local labor leaders are ready to admit that in holding a public meeting, thus jeopardizing the jobs of so many men.

It was authoritatively stated last night that no more public meetings would be held, but that the organization would still continue. It will be conducted secretly in the future, however. It is now feared that nearly every man who attended the meeting will lose his position. This would delay the work of organization, because the men taking their places would first have to be interested in the movement, which would take some time.

Among the more prominent men discharged are John Williams, foreman in the 28-inch mill for 12 years, and Joe Bridges, beater in the 33-inch mill for 30 years.

CAPE FEAR RIVER FLOOD.

Seven Feet Above Common Level Great Damage to Property.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Jan. 15.—The Cape Fear river was at 70 feet above common water Friday, Saturday and Sunday, the highest ever known in its history. Farms along the river have been inundated and large losses to the numerous logging camps and mills have been caused. Many of them were under from 10 to 30 feet of water. Every thing floatable have been washed away.

Sunday afternoon the river commenced falling at a very rapid rate. The steamers, the Cape Fear and the Hurt, had steamed away from channel water, all wharves being washed away. Before they could reach the main channel the Cape Fear struck a bar where she lay and pounded herself to pieces, finally breaking in two amidships. The Hurt is stuck fast in the mud, but is in no danger. The loss will be very heavy, as the cargo of the Cape Fear was a valuable one. A tug has left Wilmington and will try to pull the Hurt out of the mud.

Poisoned by Canned Beef.

WABASH, Ind., Jan. 15.—Samuel Coran and family at Wabash are dangerously ill as the result of eating canned corned beef. The meat was served at lunch and an hour later the entire family of six persons were seated about the house in dreadful agony. Half a dozen physicians were summoned, who rendered all the relief possible. For a time Mr. Coran and his daughter, Lena, were at death's door. The doctors say it was a case of either zinc or arsenical poisoning.

Aged People Marry.

FRANKFORT, Ind., Jan. 15.—William B. Carter of Yeddo, Fountain county, and Mrs. Myra Allen of New London, Howard county, presented themselves at the county clerk's office here Saturday evening and secured a license to wed. They are both past 70. They positively refused to state where their marriage would take place, but said they would make their home in New London.

Epidemic of Glanders.

EATON, Ind., Jan. 15.—Glanders has broken out here among horses. Brandt & Carter have a herd of 20, of which three have died and the state veterinary surgeon had four more shot Sunday. Great excitement exists among the farmers and it is probable that a number of horses will be shot. A 90-day quarantine has been ordered by the state veterinary department.

Must Answer to the Crown.

LONDON, Ont., Jan. 15.—William David Welter and John A. Hendershot have been committed to stand trial at St. Thomas, Ont., for the murder of William Hendershot in a wood near that place. The crown charges that Hendershot placed an insurance on the life of his nephew of $11,000, and hired Welter to kill him in order that he might secure the money.

The Dreadful Destitution Among the People of St. John, N. F.

ST. JOHNS, Jan. 15.—The destitution among the people is dreadful. The relief offices and soup kitchens are surrounded by hundreds of persons. The officials are not giving relief to able bodied men, although they need it as much as others.

THE THIRD JAPANESE ARMY Is Expected to Land in Two Places on the Shantung Promontory.

HONG-KONG, Jan. 15.—A letter has been received from Kobe, Japan, dated Jan. 8, bringing news which the Japanese telegraph officials refused to transmit. The letter states that several transports are reported to have left Ujina with a portion of the third army. The embarkation of this army was expected to be completed by Jan. 11. The emperor gave an audience on Jan. 6 to the commanding officers. The transports will rendezvous at the islands near Cheonipo, Corea. The army is expected to land at two places on the Shantung promontory, south of Wei-Hai-Wei.

John Ball Will Watch.

HONG-KONG, Jan. 15.—The British fleet, with Admiral Fremantle in command, has gone to Japan, presumably to follow the Japanese movements. The British warship Pylades, bound for Australia, has been ordered to proceed to China.

Lynching Denounced.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Jan. 15.—Judge John M. Elliott, in charging the grand jury at Arkansas City, spoke of the recent triple lynching of Luke and Richard Washington and Henry Clay Robinson, all colored, for the brutal murder of H. C. Patton, a prominent white merchant, and demanded a rigid investigation. He emphasized the fact that justice would have been meted out by the court had the law been permitted to take its course, and denounced the action of the mob in defaming the ends of justice.

Singular Cause For Damages.

ANDERSON, Ind., Jan. 15.—Vern Carpenter, 16, two months ago jumped off the Big Four express train at the Paulsboro crossing, and was badly injured. The train was running rapidly at the time. Carpenter's mother has now brought suit against the railway company for $10,000 damages, because the laws require all trains to stop at crossings, and this was not done by the train in question. The boy was stealing a ride, intending to alight at the crossing.

He's Gone to Australia.

EELHART, Ind., Jan. 15.—Carl E. Beardsley, the young Ann Arbor student who so mysteriously disappeared a short time ago, leaving no trace of himself, has at last been located in Australia, where he is devoting his time to missionary work. He had always expressed a desire to enter the missionary field, but was strongly opposed by his relatives. He was a son of the late Senator Beardsley of this city.

After the Lynchers.

MOUNT STERLING, Ky., Jan. 15.—A large mass meeting was held at the courthouse yesterday afternoon to ferret out the lynchers of Thomas Blair, which occurred Jan. 1. It is known that there were 15 men in the mob, and there are $600 on each of their heads. The state gives $100. This county $100 and Morgan county, where Blair lived, $100. Circuit court convenes next Monday and trouble is expected.

New Steel Plant.

PORTLAND, Ind., Jan. 15.—Negotiations are in progress with an English syndicate for the location of a mammoth steel plant at Dunkirk to employ at least 1,000 hands. All the projectors ask is a location and a subsidy. The carshops already being built at the same place by the Dunkirk Locomotive and Repair company will also employ 1,000 men.

Family Poisoned Through Jealousy.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 15.—An entire colored family named McCrea was poisoned by rough on rats, which was administered to them in corn meal made into bread. The deed was inspired by jealousy and was committed by Maggie Boroughs. John and Jane, the son and daughter of Mrs. McCrea, are dead. The others have recovered.

Natural Gas Plants Gobbled Up.

MUNCIE, Ind., Jan. 15.—The Deitrich syndicate has filed a deed of trust in the recorder's office for $2,000,000 in favor of the Central Trust company of New York. Accompanying the documents is a deed conveying the Fort Wayne, Anderson, Bluffton, Montpelier, Camden and Park Place natural gas plants and wells and the lines leading to these cities.

Both Badly Burned.

EATON, Ind., Jan. 15.—William Nilan and Arch Neff were badly burned at the Paragon Paper company's plant Sunday. They were fixing the gas regulator when a large volume of gas burst through from the regulator and seriously burned the two men. Their faces and hands are terribly lacerated and Nilan may lose a hand. They will recover.

Suffocated by Escaping Gas.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Jan. 15.—David P. Bryant of Stilesville registered as a guest at the Depot hotel, was found dead in his room, having been suffocated by escaping gas. Bryant was an old soldier, who served during the war with the Forty-third Indiana.

Badly Frozen.

MASSILLON, O., Jan. 15.—Nicholas Ebel of Neuman Creek was frozen Saturday night while going to draw his pay. Medical aid was not obtained until Sunday night. Both arms will have to be amputated; his ears and toes may have to go also.

Dread Natural Gas.

NORWALK, O., Jan. 15.—Mrs. Judge D. H. Fox and daughter, Carrie, nearly lost their lives by the fumes of natural gas. They were unconscious when found.

CASE OF DEBS ET AL.

It Is Now Before the United States Supreme Court.

BROUGHT THERE ON AN APPEAL.

The Full Court of the Highest Tribunal In the Land Will Decide Whether or Not the Strike Leaders Should Serve Sentences For Refusing to Obey the Orders of the Court.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The case of E. V. Debs, president of the American Railway union, and his associates was presented to the supreme court of the United States yesterday by C. S. Darrow, of counsel for the imprisoned officials. Debs et al. were managers of the famous railway strike in Chicago last summer and were recently sent to jail by Judge Woods of the seventh circuit court for contempt of court in refusing to obey the orders of court in connection with that strike.

They applied to Judge Grosscup for release on a writ of habeas corpus, which he refused to grant, and from that decision they appealed to the supreme court of the United States. Application was made by Mr. Darrow to Mr. Harlan Saturday for a writ, but he referred the application to the full court.

In presenting the case to the court Mr. Darrow said he asked leave to file a petition for writ of error and supersedeas and also a petition for writ of habeas corpus. He would also ask the court, in case it decided to issue either writ, to fix the amount of bail to be required of petitioners pending the decision of the case. Application had been made to Mr. Justice Harlan for writ of error, and he had referred the petition to the full court.

Chief Justice Fuller said the first question to be discussed and disposed of was whether or not a writ of error would lie at all. He asked Solicitor General Maxwell if the government had any views upon the question.

Assistant Attorney General Whitney responded that the attorney general, not being able to be present, had requested him to briefly express his views. They were that the government had no interest in the decision upon the question as to whether the law of 1891 had taken away the jurisdiction of the court in habeas corpus and whether or not a writ of error would lie, except to know which is the proper course of procedure. He had no suggestion to make, he said, respecting the amount of bail.

The chief justice asked Mr. Darrow when he would be ready to argue the question, and he replied that he could go on at once to some extent and would be fully prepared by tomorrow. Mr. Whitney said he could not tell whether the attorney general or himself would argue the case for the government, and, inasmuch as Judge Woods' decision was a long one, it ought to be considered with care.

It was finally determined by the court to hear argument on the question of the jurisdiction of the court in respect of a writ of error on tomorrow after the conclusion of any argument that may be in progress on that day.

HILL AND GORMAN

Made the Senate Interesting For Everybody Yesterday.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Stirring interest was given to the senate proceedings yesterday by the speeches of Senator Gorman (Md.) and Senator Hill (N. Y.) on various phases of the tariff and financial situation. At times the debate between the two distinguished Democratic senators took on an added interest from the keen personal criticism and satire directed at each other.

Mr. Gorman spoke for two hours. The speech was mainly remarkable in its array of facts to show that the tariff law, which Mr. Gorman took so large a part in framing, was wholly insufficient in raising the revenue absolutely requisite to carry on the government. In prosecuting this view Mr. Gorman dwelt on the personal features of the contest over the Wilson bill, and arraigned Mr. Hill for his attitude then and since on the tariff question.

The speech of Mr. Hill was equally personal and equally vigorous and was received with the same close attention from his associates and interest in the galleries as had been shown to the Maryland senator. Mr. Hill directed his remarks mainly to Mr. Gorman, who had no idea of suicide.

Senator Allison (Ia.) also contributed to the features of the day by a short but very effective presentation of the need of immediate legislation on the tariff to raise revenue instead of further fruitless agitation of currency revision.

Filibustering in the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Filibustering tactics again defeated the Grout oleomargarine bill, which was under consideration during the morning hour in the house yesterday. By a special order from the rules committee the remainder of the day was consumed with business reported from the judiciary committee.

But one bill, however, was passed—that providing for additional judicial facilities for the Indian Territory, the affairs in that country being a fruitful theme for discussion during the consideration of the bill.

Tormentors Worsted.

DULUTH, Jan. 15.—A desperate row occurred between Fins and some of the men at White & Company's camp near Mountain Iron, during which several men were badly cut by the Fins, who became infuriated because the camp men were teasing them.

BROOKLYNITES ARE WALKING.

Trolley Railroad Employees Strike For a Reduction of Hours.

BROOKLYN, Jan. 15.—Nearly 6,000 men, including motormen, conductors, electricians and others employed on the various trolley railroads in this city, quit work between 4 and 5 o'clock yesterday morning. It was the first strike the trolley system had experienced, and was a most thorough and complete one. The only road not tied up was the Brooklyn and Coney Island, better known as the Jay and Smith street line.

During the day, Mr. Lewis, president of the Brooklyn Heights Railroad company, made a public statement in which he said the tie-up was without any just cause. He also notified the mayor, police commissioner, sheriff and fire commissioner of the strike and asked for police protection. He sent a communication to the railroad commissioners at Albany and posted notices of warning at all car houses, notifying strikers to keep away. There were also warnings to keep the peace, but in spite of these, numerous cases of interference occurred. There was some delay in transportation of the mails, but the mailcars were guarded by policemen.

At the different powerhouses throughout the city, everything was quiet. A short distance from each one, the strikers kept their pickets on duty. Railroad depots were deserted, but pickets kept watch there also. They did not have much to do, but may have, as it is expected the companies will bring men from other cities to take the strikers' places.

Peter Butcher, a motorman, has been arrested on a charge of obstructing a mailcar. He threw a heavy iron girder in front of it. He was held in $500 bail for examination, and may have to answer to the United States authorities for interfering with the mail.

The police continue to make arrests wherever they can fasten upon a person interfering with the company's property.

The motormen and conductors will, they claim, invoke the law against the companies. District Attorney Ridgway has promised, they say, to bring the matter of violating the 10 hour law before the grand jury. The men declare they are prepared to give testimony that will prove the guilt of the companies.

Throughout yesterday there were rumors that the employees of the Union and Kings county elevated roads would strike in sympathy with the trolley men. A canvas, however, among the leaders of the elevated employees clearly indicated that no such movement would be taken.

The trolley companies, realizing that any attempt to run cars would be futile, closed down their powerhouses and carsheds. The cars of the Court street line stopped running at 6:30 p. m.

POSSIBLY MURDER.

Wife, Son and Another Man and Woman Under Arrest.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Martin Bodecker, aged 57 years, a painter, was found dead in the apartments of George Hoffbach Sunday evening. Whether he shot himself, as is alleged by the Hoffbach family, or was shot by some one, is a question which the law will have to settle. Four persons were arrested on suspicion of knowing more than they will tell of the affair, and are held without bail. They are George Hoffbach, his son, Alexander, his wife, Anna, and Mrs. Catherine Knopp.

Bodecker went to the abode of the Hoffbachs to collect a bill of $10, which was long overdue. He had made several previous attempts to collect the money, but failed. Recently Bodecker and three of his children who are able to help earn a living have been out of work. He has been in desperate straits, and he told his wife at noon Sunday when he left home that he was going to make another attempt to get $10 from Hoffbach. His wife is positive that he had no idea of suicide.

HANGED BY NEIGHBORS.

After They Leave a Friend Cuts Him Down Before Dead.

LEBANON, Mo., Jan. 15.—Word reached here Monday of the hanging of one Reuben Garner by a mob of indignant neighbors, near Cott postoffice, Dallas county, Thursday. Garner was accused of robbing the store of Hunt & Fowler at that place last week, and a crowd of 10 or 12 indignant neighbors went to his home, took him out and strung him up to a tree and left him suspended, his feet a short distance from the ground. But a friend of Garner's, who was present when the party called for him, followed the would-be lynchers, and no sooner had they left their victim than he was there to rescue him, and, speedily cutting the rope, he succeeded after vigorous efforts in rescuing Garner, who has since left the neighborhood.

JOHN BURNS' VIEWS.

His Opinion of the American Capitalists Not Specially Favorable.

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 15.—John Burns, member of parliament, the labor leader, has arrived here from New York. In an interview Mr. Burns, speaking of his brief tour of the United States, said he liked the Americans very much, but, in his opinion, the American capitalists was an enlarged and offensively glorified edition of his English replicas. Excepting in the skilled trades, he said, American workingmen were not organized to the extent that the English workingmen were.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 15, 1895.

Fair, warmer; south winds.

The latest in the Gubernatorial double-shuffle is a combination of Hardin and Hager, who will be opposed by an alliance of the Clay and Stone forces. Next.

WHEN the Civil Service law was extended recently so as to place employees of the revenue department in the classified service, Collector Johnson, of Louisville, came out in an interview telling how easily the law could be evaded. He no doubt regrets now that he didn't keep his mouth closed, as he came near getting his walking papers. The President has let him know that it is the duty of officers to obey the laws and not evade them.

THE people of Kentucky certainly ought to be well pleased with the way the penitentiary at Frankfort was managed last year. There were 561 convicts received at the Frankfort penitentiary during the year ending December 3, and on that day the whole number of prisoners there was 1,156. The prison was within a few hundred dollars of being self-sustaining during the year. And it will no doubt make a better showing in 1895.

WHILE Kentucky's Governor was railing at Judge Bachwalter of Cincinnati for refusing to give up a negro to him, another negro was hanging from a trestle at Mt. Sterling, Ky., done to death by lynchers. In the face of this the Governor complains that the Judge acts as if Kentucky were a semi-barbarous State. Well, isn't it?—Philadelphia Press.

The individual hung at Mt. Sterling was a white man and not a negro. Speaking of semi-barbarous States, has the Press forgotten the awful tragedies at Homestead and in the mining regions of Pennsylvania? And there have been lynchings up in that State, too, as the Press well knows. Yet the Press refers to Kentucky as a semi-barbarous State.

The Madison County Tragedy.

Richmond, Ky., had a legal hanging last Friday when a negro named Taylor was swung off for the brutal murder of Squire Doty, a highly esteemed farmer. When the crime was committed bloodhounds were used in running down the murderer.

Mr. Albert McCormick, a Maysville man who is manager of the Western Union Telegraph office at Richmond, issued an illustrated account of the tragedy in pamphlet form in which the life of Taylor and his victim is briefly outlined and the full history of the crime, capture, confession, trial and sentence given concisely. The pamphlet contains about twenty-five pages and is altogether an interesting criminal history.

No Troubled With Streets Like Maysville's.

Towns in Florida have a great boon in the so-called paving clay found near Bartow in that State and elsewhere further south. It is not solely clay, but a combination of sand, clay and oxide of iron. It breaks up under the pick when dug, and needs no other preparation to be put upon the sandy streets of Floridian towns. It is laid on several inches deep, wet, and then rolled. The result is a hard, smooth surface, that resists the wear of traffic. Railway companies in Florida have used the material for the approaches to stations and for crossings.

THE LATE MISS PHOEBE WOOD.

She Was Stricken Down While On Her Way to Church—Burial To-morrow.

The remains of Miss Phoebe Wood, notice of whose death at Cincinnati on Sunday was made yesterday in the BULLETIN, will be brought here on the train at 10 o'clock to-morrow and will be taken direct to the cemetery for interment.

Deceased was stricken with apoplexy, while she was on her way to church Sunday morning at Avondale. Her nephew, Mr. J. F. Pogue, was with her at the time, and assisted her from the car to the office of Dr. E. P. Adams. Dr. Buck was called in, but the efforts of the physicians were unavailing, and the stricken woman succumbed to the disease shortly after noon. The funeral occurs at Cincinnati.

Deceased was fifty-seven years of age, and most of her life was spent in this city, where she leaves many relatives and a wide circle of friends.

Covington Commonwealth: "The attention of the Maysville Public Ledger is respectfully called to the action of the Fiscal Court at Alexandria, elected last November when Campbell County went Republican from top to bottom. Its first act was to add to the levy to be collected in Newport, Dayton and Bellevue 13 cents on the $100 valuation, adding $35,000 to the county treasury, when there is not the slightest necessity for it, the debt of the county, under Democratic control, being less than $2,500, and no new enterprises contemplated."

Horse Sausage.

Newport Journal: "Did you ever eat any horse sausage? How do you know you didn't? A few miles above Crown Point, Ind., there is now and has been for several years a factory where 'nice, metwurst' is made from nothing else than the flesh of horses so old or crippled that they can't work any more, and the stuff is shipped to all parts of the country. Reckon you've had some of it. It is fine to look at, comes high and tastes real good."

The Modern Mother.

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy, than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

Delinquent Tax-payers.

The delinquent tax list of 1894 has been placed in my hands for collection. Those who owe are respectfully requested to settle, in order to save trouble and expense.

A PITCHER IN TROUBLE.

ARTHUR HERMAN, WHO WAS WITH THE CYNTHIANA TEAM, TURNS UP AS A "PEEPING TOM."

ARTHUR HERMAN, a base ball twirler of considerable ability who was with the Cynthiana team part of last season, has turned up in a new role at Cincinnati. He was with the Cynthiana kickers on the trip to this city and is remembered by many Maysvillians.

For two or three weeks the nurses at the Cincinnati hospital have been greatly annoyed by a "Peeping Tom." All efforts to apprehend the fellow proved unsuccessful until Saturday night when one of the nurses discovered a man trying to get through a window that opens on the portico. The Superintendent was hastily summoned, and tackled the fellow. The two had a lively tussle, but the intruder was finally downed, placed in custody and removed to the station house, where he was identified as Herman. A charge of burglary was entered against him. He refused to give any explanation of his conduct.

AT Lexington Friday Prof. A. L. Saltstein's two-year-old child was badly burned, and the mother met with painful injuries in saving the child from death. The baby caught fire from a grate, and was burning up when his brother, a four-year-old boy, seized a broom and attempted to extinguish the flames. Mrs. Saltstein ran in about this time and tried to smother the fire with her bare hands. She succeeded, but was badly burned. Both mother and child are in a serious condition.

FELICITY (O.) Times: "Maysville's Council has passed a practically prohibitory ordinance relating to opticians, but really aimed at Professor Louis Landman, M. D., of Miami Medical College and the Ophthalmic Hospital, at Cincinnati. While Maysvillians are, as a rule, 'free traders' they, or rather those whose business is affected in such relations, are not inclined to put their theory into practice. The boycotted ones, however, are not prevented from going to the top of the river's bank at Aberdeen and hollering their cornercker patrons, and cordially inviting them over into the Buckeye State."

TWENTY-EIGHT years ago Lancaster issued $3,000 in bonds for the purpose of building an opera-house and town hall. They bore eight per cent. interest and the interest on them amounted to $6,640. About $800 of the bonds are yet outstanding, but it is expected to call them in the present year. The opera house or town hall was burned in 1891.

ELMER E. VANCE's famous railroad comedy drama, "The Limited Mail," will appear at Washington Opera House on Thursday evening. The play abounds in comedy and dramatic passages; is crowded with startling and thrilling scenes, and is a series of surprises from first to last—the story dealing with life on the railroads in the far West, in which many realistic and familiar scenes are depicted with a faithfulness recognizable by everybody. Pathos and humor, with just enough of sensation to give spice and variety to the unravelling of the plot. The company this season is spoken of by the press as the best one yet brought together by the management, and includes that bright little lady, "Beatrice," whose charming acting, artistic dancing and melodious singing always charm her audience.

The Rhymes and Roberts Resort to the Arbitrament of Force and Arms.

ATLANTA, Jan. 15.—A special to The Journal from Douglas, Ga., says: News has just reached here of a serious difficulty between two families, the Rhymes and the Roberts, who live about two or three miles from this place.

Bad feeling had existed between the members of these families for some time, caused by lawsuit.

Friday afternoon the female portion of the Rhymes family decided to submit their case to the arbitrament of force and arms. Upon the occasion in question Mrs. Nancy Rhymes and her two daughters, Martha and Adelia, met Mrs. Roberts and her daughters, Nancy, Jane and Emma, on the road. The former proceeded to attack the Roberts with their fists and also with sticks, and during the engagement Martha Rhymes drew a knife and succeeded in inflicting serious, if not fatal, wounds upon the three Roberts girls, stabbing them in several places. C. M. E. CHURCH.

Organized Last Evening by Presiding Elder Jackson—The New Trustees.

Last evening, Rev. W. A. Jackson, the Presiding Elder of the Mt. Sterling district, Kentucky conference, of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church, organized the C. M. E. Church in this city with the following trustees: Isham Dawson, Wesley Owens and Amos Hailey.

This is the first and only church it is claimed ever organized in Maysville having colored Bishops. The bench of Bishops of the C. M. E. Church is as follows: J. A. Bebee, Isaac Lane, L. H. Holsey, E. Cottrell and R. S. Williams, who are described as men of piety and culture, and eminent pulpit orators.

The church held its first general conference Dec. 15th, 1870, at Jackson, Tenn. Bishop Robert Paine, D. D., of the M. E. Church, South, ordained Revs. W. H. Miles and R. Vanderhaast, who were the first Bishops of the C. M. E. Church. The church has five excellent institutions of learning, a publishing house, at Jackson, Tenn., a weekly paper, The Christian Index, with Dr. C. H. Phillips editor.

The new organization in this city will undoubtedly receive a christian recognition from the good citizens of Maysville.

—Rev. D. D. Chapin leaves to-day for Lexington to attend a convocation of the Episcopal Diocese of Kentucky.

Flowerpots.

All new flowerpots require to be soaked in water and allowed to dry thoroughly before being used. The soil does not hang well to the sides of garden pots unless so treated. Dirty pots are open to the same objection. Let any one try to put a plant with fresh soil into a pot which has been used before and left unwashed, and he will find in a few days, when the soil begins to dry, that it leaves a space and does not adhere as it should to the sides of it. No plant can possibly flourish under such circumstances. The roots of a plant draw to the sides of a pot naturally in search of moisture and growth, of course, is checked if a current of air is allowed to pass between them and the sides. Some plants exhibit this tendency in such a remarkable degree that few roots are to be seen, except a network on the outside of the soil next the pot. —Florist.
